Importance of Disclosure

- Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.
- Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Cash Before Cover

- It is fundamental and absolute special condition of this contract of insurance that the premium due must be paid and received by us before cover commences. If this condition is not complied with then this insurance Policy is automatically null and void.

Claim Procedure

- Written notice of claim must be provided to us within 30 days upon return from your trip.
